

Movies:

This panel displays a list of movies you want to process together. To prepare a new movie, use the New of Prepare button. To open an existing movie or a movie list, use the Open button.

New:

This allows you to create a new movie. Note the images must be organized in individual folders for each channel (see manual).

Open:

This allows you to open an existing movie or a movie data list.

Prepare:

This allows you to create a movie or a series of movies where the images have not been moved into channel-specific folders.

Details:

This allows you to review the details of the selected movie.

Delete:

This allows you to remove the selected movie from the list of movies to process.

Delete all:

This allow you to remove all the current movies from the list of movies to process.

Save as Movie Data List:

This allow you to save the current list of movies as a MAT file. This list can be later reopened using the Open button.

Packages:

This panel lists all existing packages with the available packages b. Select one of the packages to process your data and click "Continue" to go to the package control panel.